

The Bolivar Village Council met in regular session on Monday, August 5, 2013. Mayor Hubble called the meeting to order at 7:03 p.m. The Pledge of Allegiance was said and a moment of silent prayer was held. Haueter, Mariani, Slutz and Vincent answered roll call. Lloyd was absent.

MAYOR HUBBLE – Announced three candidates, Timothy Lang, Andrew Marburger and Lisa Cochran, were interviewed for the open council seat. App resigned her seat at the July 1 meeting as she accepted the position as assistant clerk. App will be commencing the role of Village Clerk/Treasurer after Shelly Crowe resigns at the end of October after twenty (20) years of service. Mayor Hubble asked for council’s approval to appoint Andrew Marburger to council. Haueter moved, seconded by Vincent to appoint Margburger. In a roll call vote, Mariani abstained.

Legal counsel stated that he can’t abstain. Mariani said he is resigning immediately and will not vote on anything in the meeting. The mayor said, “we don’t have a quorum and therefore we can’t have a meeting”.

PUBLIC SPEAKS: Bill Huth interjected and stated we (the village) needs to have a facility with sufficient space for a meeting.

Since there was no longer a quorum, council could not continue. The meeting ended at 7:15p.m.

Rebecca S. Hubble, Mayor
